in the new study researchers at nationwide children’s hospital found that sleep and emotional disorders were common in adolescents with migraines the caramelised banana french toast catches our greedy eye too.